

Wow! Close shave with the weather for the Festival but it turned out great in the end.

Judging by the reports elsewhere in this issue, the organisers once again pulled off another successful day. Congratulations to them.

Unfortunately I missed the sight of the Ambulance crew trying to fit a Suma Wrestler into the ambulance, but what an ending to the day's events! Seriously I hope Jeff's knee is on the mend. (See Festival report)

I can vouch for the fact that the band concert went with a 'swing' (do you get it?) It was a most enjoyable evening and once the refreshment started to take effect and the band played 'New York, New York' the place was alive with dancers; although I don't think too many of us had taken advantage of Jacob Kneen's 'Strictly Comes to Winthorpe' lessons in June!

This month I have been asked to include the rota for 'Beating the Bounds' which takes place on the 4th and 5th of September. (Page 24).

I understand that throughout the country many hymns are sung that fit in nicely with this event. One of which is 'And did those feet', which we all know as Jerusalem. The words of the poem were written by William Blake in c1804, as part of the preface to his epic 'Milton – a Poem. The music was written by Sir Hubert Parry in 1916.

I wonder how many know that this hymn has featured in the following films;- Four Weddings and a Funeral, How to Get Ahead in Advertising, The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner, Calendar Girls, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, Goodnight Mr. Tom, Peep Show and Monty Python's Flying Circus and of course at all WI meetings since time immemorial!

Next month I will be sending in my copy by email and would therefore appreciate it if contributors could send me their requests as early as possible in the month.

Closing date for September issue is 20th August or a week before?

Once again we were blessed with beautiful weather when around 30 members and guests of the garden club had an evening visit to Mr Roger Pyketts farm at Hawton.

As Roger was away we were met by his son Mark who first of all greeted us and we had a coffee or a lovely glass of wine and nibbles.

We then boarded a seated trailer and proceeded on the farm tour, stopping at the fishing lakes and then onto the river Devon, seeing wonderful wild life, "the birdies" amongst us really enjoyed it.

We also saw wonderful crops and 150 acres of planted trees for commercial use.

To finish with, we were all offered a glass of wine.

I would like to say a big THANK YOU to all the members and friends who have supported me on the outings I have arranged over the past few years and wish Paul and Diana Kitson, our new outing secretaries, all the best.

The next meeting is Wednesday 15th September and includes:-

Pruning by Steven Rouledge.

WINTHORPE & DISTRICT W.I. REPORT FOR JULY

What a beautiful evening we had for our strawberries and wine evening this year. It was both warm and dry so we were able to sit outside in complete comfort, in Mr & Mrs Goodwin's lovely garden. They had been to great effort, laying out chairs and tables and brollies.

Committee members had been busy in the afternoon preparing the strawberries and setting out glasses for the wine.

When members arrived Mrs. Pat Nelson welcomed them and also thanked Mrs. Goodwin for letting us meet once again in her garden. Mrs Nelson asked members if they would be generous when buying raffle tickets as the money was to be given to the R.N.L.I.

A request was made for cakes for the cake stall at the Festival and also for the refreshments stall which the W.I. would be running. Bottles for the bottle stall and also a little bric-a-brac was asked for. Helpers would be needed on the day for any of the stalls.

Then along came the wine and strawberries and cream with shortbread. Everyone was in a very sociable mood so there was much hilarity.

The raffle prizes were bottles of wine, the main prize being a bottle with glasses given by Rhythm and Booze of Newark. This was won by Mrs.Viv Richardson. With the generosity of members, the raffle raised Seventy five pounds on the night.

We were entertained during the evening by the Church Bells, this being the evening when the ringers practice, what a pleasant sound.

Everyone was agreed that it had been a most pleasant evening.

There is not a meeting in August, so our next meeting is September 9th, in the Village Hall, when someone from Brough Garden Centre will be talking and demonstrating - How to make a hanging Basket.

Hostesses are Mesdames E.Moran and L.Moran.

Have a good holiday.

GIANT SUNFLOWER COMPETITION

In the language of flowers the tall sunflower means haughtiness. The word haughtiness means proud or superior. The sunflower stands tall with a large bright smiling face looking around and could be saying, 'I am the best of all plants.' I think this, sums the sunflower up nicely. Don't you?

Your plant will now be produced its flower head. This usually occurs about 4 months from sowing the seed. When the flower head opens to reveal the yellow flowers an interesting thing occurs. The flower head will turn and face the sun, following it from early morning to late evening. Look out for bees, nature's busiest workers, pollinating the flower. They are attracted by the flower's pollen. The small bees are honey bees and the larger ones are bumble bees. The white tailed bumble bee is our common wild bee.

As the flower head develops, the plant will stop growing and it will divert most of its energy into the flower and seeds. This is a very important time of the plant's life. Now give it a feed of Tomorite every time you water. This will encourage the seeds to grow bigger. As the seeds develop, the sunflower starts to bow its head and will then face the ground. This is due to the weight of the seed head and it is nature's way of keeping the rain off the seeds.

Before all this happens and when the flower is fully formed, measure the height of your plant from the soil level to the highest point. Make a note of this because you will have to ring me with result on Sunday Sept 12th.
Tel: 704444.

DID YOU KNOW?

Some people see a Sunflower as a flower others see it as a vegetable. It is of course both, a beautiful flower and a great vegetable! Healthy, nutritious and attractive, Sunflowers have it all. That is probably why sunflowers have spread from their native home in North America, and are now grown around the world.

WINTHORPE SUMMER FESTIVAL – 2010

I remember writing something this time last year and it feels like déjà vu. I had been worrying last year after we had some terrible weather before the event and lo and behold the same thing happened again this year. Luckily the outcome this year was the same as 2009 and the weather did come through in our favour. Having said that there were some of us who didn't escape the weather on Saturday morning and I think that naughty little shower made some people think twice about venturing out that afternoon.

The children from the Winthorpe Primary School did a wonderful performance and many thanks to Miss Litowczyk from the school for organising the opening performance with the children. The day was full of lots of things to see and do and I'm sure everyone had a wonderful time. It was great to see the involvement of the Youth Club this year with their time given to raising money on the day and helping behind the scenes too.

The exhibition this year was to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Community Centre and a big thank you to Pat Finn for creating a wonderful display.

I would like to thank all the members of the Festival Committee, Tish Applewhite, Sue Masheder but especially Peter Foden for his never tiring enthusiasm and efforts without which the event would not have been as successful as it was and Justin Baker-Smith for organising the evening event which again I understand was a fantastic evening.

Unfortunately I missed the evening concert and the Songs of Praise on the Sunday. This was due to my husband who, after manning the Sumo Suits all afternoon, thought he would have a go and then realised that he doesn't fall like a young boy anymore. The fall resulted in a dislocated knee and a trip to A&E; luckily we were sent home but I spent the rest of the weekend being the only person in our house able to get around on 2 legs so busy, busy, busy! Thanks to David Milner for his kind words for Jeff on Saturday night; unfortunately the swelling is still too much to be able to assess the damage yet. This year's event was no different to any other in that it could not have happened without the many people that gave up their time to make it happen; a big thank you to you all.

Thanks to all the following in no particular order:-

Rev. David Milner	Boundary Sound
Jean Foden and the Tuesday Club	Ice Diamond Cheer Leaders
Pat Nelson and the W.I.	Fraser Dewar
Pat Finn and the Garden Club	The Rattlejag Folk Group
Jamie Macintyre, Winthorpe School	Cavalier Dance Band
Miss Litowczyk, Winthorpe School	Party Time
The children of Winthorpe School	Colin Smith – Barbecue
Michelle Baker-Smith/Tiger Tots	Peter Bateson - Barbecue
Denise Day and the Youth Club	Gary Thompson – Barbecue
Gwen Macdonald for the raffle	Diane Rowland /Bob Allen
Ann and Alan Stone	David Green
The Church Choir	Jeff Manley
The ladies who decorated the church	Richard Tomlinson
Steve Jackson and the Parish Council	Jon Faber
Frances Kelly and the Comm. Centre Trustees	Richard Radford
Bob McClymont and the Village Hall Trustees	Jo and Martin from the PO
Duncan Richardson – car parking	Cliff Newbold
Roger Jackson – car parking	Anyone we have missed

Thanks to Timico, Heron and AM Trophies for their sponsorship.

As this goes to print we are still calculating the figures for the events of the weekend and a detailed report will be published in the September issue of Focal Point. We will also announce the date for the post-Festival public meeting in the September issue.

Once again many thanks to all for a wonderful weekend.

Chairman, Winthorpe Festival Committee

Winthorpe Village Festival

A big thank-you to the Winthorpe Village Festival Committee for organising such a wonderful week-end. The festival on the Saturday afternoon, followed in the evening with the Cavalier Dance Band and Sunday's Songs of Praise.

The residents of Winthorpe are very lucky that there are people in the village who give their time so generously to enable this to happen.

Barbara Finn.

WI - Festival

I would like to say a big thank you to members and friends who kindly gave donations, provided bottles, cakes and bric a brac for our stalls at the festival.

Also to those members at the Festival who worked so hard on the stalls and providing tea and cakes.

It certainly turned out a huge success.

Pat Nelson

Garden Club - Festival.

Many thanks to the people who supported the Skittles and Ball Game run by Winthorpe Garden Club at the Village Festival. A total of £72 was raised, which will be divided between All Saints' Church and the RNLI, the nominated charity.

My thanks go to the helpers, David and Vivienne Green, Harold and Carol Mabbott, Steve Turner, Harold Pacey, Ray Hollingworth, and of course Ian and Liz Wison, who organised it all.

An Invitation.....

As I am sure many people in the village are already aware my Granddaughter, Jennifer, is getting married on the 4th September in Winthorpe Parish Church with the wedding reception being held in the gardens of Lumless House (immediately below the church).

Over the past year members of the family together with help from a number of our friends, have been working very hard to get the gardens finished and presentable ready for the wedding – the work will be completed in the next week or two.

Many local people have expressed an interest in seeing the finished gardens, which have taken fifteen years to complete!

My family and I would like to extend an invitation to everyone in the village to come and see the finished gardens on Sunday evening the 29th August from 6 p.m. – weather permitting of course!

In addition to three ponds with flowering water lilies and six fountains/water features (all of which will hopefully be working) we have recently built a Gazebo with stone columns and a wrought iron roof and of course there are many unusual trees, flowering shrubs and climbing plants etc.

We have also decorated parts of the garden with fairy lights and other garden lighting and these will all be switched on at dusk, at around 7 p.m. or thereabouts.

The Commemorative Museum will also be open for those interested.

Everyone will be very welcome and we look forward to welcoming many local residents.

Adventures from n.b. Mulberry

East over the Pennines

Yorkshire and Lancashire have long been part of the industrial heartland of Britain, with their heritage of water power, mills, wool and cotton. During the Industrial Revolution canal engineers sought to connect these industrial centres to promote trade. To do this they had to overcome one large obstacle; the Pennines. Eventually, three canals bridged this obstruction, the Leeds and Liverpool, the Rochdale and the Huddersfield canals. The earliest canal, the Leeds and Liverpool, takes a circuitous but technically easier route from Liverpool, through Wigan and Skipton to Leeds.

Because the main centre of trade, Manchester, was not directly connected; two later canals were built, taking a more direct but difficult route from Manchester to Brighouse and Wakefield. These two canals were abandoned early last century because of declining use and high maintenance costs. However, because of increasing leisure traffic they have been ‘restored’ to give a real canal adventure for boating enthusiasts. In 2009 our adventure took us on both canals for a double crossing. Both canals require hard work and offer stunning scenery but some frustration, since the restoration work, passing through old mill towns and high moorland, was necessarily done to a budget and falls a bit short of the usual standard, with leaking locks, silted canals and water shortages. I’m sure British Waterway’s view, along with others involved in the restoration, was to get the routes open again and see what traffic developed and then carry out improvements and repairs as necessary.

Our route started in Manchester with a whole day spent climbing using locks from the excellent city centre moorings at Castlefields to a ‘holding point’ at the start of the Rochdale Canal. This was a ‘grit your teeth’ day as the locks were heavy, overflowing with excess flood water and the canal route was through canyons of old buildings and under new ones; quite unpleasant at times. The ‘holding point’ was necessary to make a convoy through Failsworth, shepherded by BW workers to unlock and relock every gate; another hard day's travelling. The next day took us through Rochdale and out onto the moorlands. Above Rochdale the canal climbs to the top of the pass at a place suitably called Summit. Only six boats a day are allowed through because of water shortages and booking ahead is needed. At one point, where we tried to moor for the night, the canal started emptying and we felt ourselves tipping sideways. Fortunately we were able to push ourselves off the mud to find a better place. At another we motored through a tiny rivulet of water in the bottom of the canal hoping that we wouldn't run aground. Strangely, above the next lock there was ample water, but none where we were!

From the spectacular scenery of the summit the canal descends steeply through more lovely Pennine towns such as Todmorden, Hebden Bridge and Sowerby Bridge and on to Brighouse where the canal joins the River Calder for Dewsbury and Wakefield. Again, the Calder is hard work, with short locks, flood gates and rather 'quaint' wooden machinery to test your muscles.

Later in the year, after a bit of a rest, we returned westwards over the Huddersfield Canal, perhaps that will be the next story.

Advice and information points on all Nottinghamshire County Council services will be open for the first time in Newark and Ollerton town centres.

A customer service adviser will be based at Newark Library on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9am to 5pm and at Ollerton Library on Fridays 9.30am to 5.30pm from next week (week commencing Monday 5 July).

Local residents will be able to drop in to find out about more about services including blue badge applications, free school meals, highways enquiries, household waste and recycling centre permits for vans, social care and children services.

The Council is currently reviewing its customer services across the county and is looking to offer at least one 'Information Point' in each district for the interim period.

Residents living in rural areas of Newark and Sherwood will be able to continue to access information from the authority's rural mobile county contact points which tour the district and Bassetlaw.

Councillor Martin Suthers, Deputy Leader of Nottinghamshire County Council, said: "This is the first time that residents living in Newark and Ollerton are able to find out more about our services through face-to-face contact that is available on their doorstep.

"We are currently looking at all our customer service arrangements but in the meantime we are aiming to have an information point in each of the county's main town centres for people who prefer face-to-face interaction when enquiring about what the Council offers."

Alternatively, information on the Council's services is available on its website at www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk or by telephoning its customer service centre on 08449 80 80 80 Monday to Friday 8am to 8pm or Saturdays 8am to 12noon.

Art of Calligraphy

Workshops for people new to both art & calligraphy!

Sat 14th August – Sat 25th September – Sat 9th October
Winthorpe Community Centre, 10.30 - 4.00pm

The ‘Art of Calligraphy’ thrives in Winthorpe.

It was far from monastic silence in Winthorpe Community Centre recently as a workshop helped people bring together artistic flair and beautiful calligraphic lettering.

The ancient crafts were brought into the 21st century with modern materials, with everyone creating a unique colourful booklet to show off their new skills.

The one day workshop was aimed particularly at those new to Art or Calligraphy ...or both! and the lively encouraging atmosphere was successful in coaxing everyone to have a go and release their hidden creative talent. Bridget who attended the day commented, “I never thought I’d be able to make something I’d be proud of in just one workshop”.

Jane was delighted with her unique book. She went along to the workshop with the idea of producing a truly special surprise for her husband, as they were due to travel off to the coast straight after to renew their wedding vows, exchange rings and to enjoy crab sandwiches. ‘This will just complete the most magical day’ smiled Jane who is a self confessed TRUE romantic

The workshop was run by professional artist and calligraphers Ali McDonald and Janet Smith who have planned these latest one-day sessions. A different mini-project is planned for each workshop.

Ali commented “We were confident that bringing art and calligraphy together in a fun environment would bring out the very best in our attendees, and this is what has just happened.”

Church Notices

The Parochial Church Council thank all who responded to our church cleaning appeal in last month's 'Focal Point', some gave most generously.

As yet we are unable to give you a final figure of the money collected but we do believe that the target of £450 will be achieved. We do appreciate our voluntary church cleaners and hope that they may continue their good work.

It would seem that the expected rain stayed down in Spain for the Village Gala! The 'Songs of Praise' on Sunday evening, although not so well attended as in former years was enjoyed by all and the music chosen by villagers was well known and we all had a good 'sing'. We are very grateful to the East Trent Choir for leading the singing with gusto. I would like to thank all those who decorated the church with flowers and who helped with refreshments, also David our Priest who introduced & explained the music in the service.

We were very pleased to welcome Eric Kupper, (Joan Young's son-in-law) from America, who had come over with the children for the interment of Karen's Ashes on the previous Thursday.

At the end of the service Eric said a few words of thanks for the welcome and friendliness he had received from the people of Winthorpe. Our thoughts are with Joan as she tries to move on after her bereavements of both Hector & Karen.

I think that we should be proud to live in a village where people care and support their neighbours.

We think especially this month of John Craven who at this time is hopefully enjoying his holiday with Audrey in Scotland. Beryl & Philip Watts ( Philip who may be discharged from hospital soon ) and Geoff Goodall who is also in hospital. We think also of June Taylor and any others, unknown to us, who may be unwell.

May I remind you of the Concert to be given by the Mansfield and District Male Voice Choir on Saturday Evening 25th of September at 7.30pm in Church. Tickets will be on sale from the beginning of August price £6 including refreshments. Proceeds will be divided between the church & the 'Air Ambulance'.

We have arranged to have a 'Porto-Loo' available in the graveyard.

Alan & I wish everyone a very happy holiday and a safe return home thinking especially of the arranged Winthorpe Village holiday in September and David & Kristina this month.

Up-To-date notices of our church services and those of the other church services in the Benefice are displayed outside the church.

Dear all,

The holiday season is upon us and many will at some stage during the summer enjoy time away, experiencing new things and meeting different people.

At the end of our Winthorpe Gala weekend a Songs of Praise was held at All Saints. We sang some well-known hymns as well as some more contemporary ones. The combination of words and music enabled us to think about the place of God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit in our lives' journey.

The early Christian church was made up of people from every part of society, all shapes and ages, each being challenged and in turn challenging others. Our gathering will have had many elements experienced by those in the early church.

None of us can truly imagine what it was like for the followers and evangelists at the start of the Christian movement. They took considerable risks and without pay travelled far and wide to tell people about Jesus. The security that we have and perhaps take for granted was unknown to them.

During the Gala weekend I had a number of amazing conversations. At the heart of most conversations was the realisation that there is more likely than not to be a God and a desire to engage with the ideas and thinking that shape our still largely Christian culture. As I reflect on my conversations, all took considerable risks in finding their voice and daring to talk. At a personal level I feel I have encountered something of the risky nature of our Christian ancestors.

As a child, apart from the vicar and a very few others, no one talked about belief, faith and Jesus. Although some conversations can make us feel exposed, having the conversation is key, daring to talk about spiritual matters is vital if the historic richness of our society and culture is to be restored.

In our fragmented and somewhat vulnerable society, it is uplifting to discover people care enough to dare to have a conversation about faith and the issues adhering to any faith will raise.

The Gala weekend enabled a lot of folks to talk and share their stories and thinking. During the evening as the Cavalier Dance Band entertained us, so we were able to unwind. Social time, having fun is a healthy activity for a connected community and is an affirming experience. At the end of the enjoyable band concert and after a full day, dismantling a tent may seem a dry piece of work. In truth it was an unlikely high spot, providing an enormous amount of fun and laughter. A very special shared memory for those involved.

On Sunday evening All Saints' Songs of Praise was a happy conclusion to the Gala weekend bringing together those who worked so hard to make the weekend a success. This letter gives me the opportunity to say thank you one and all for your contribution to village life and that of our church.

In Christian love,
David
