

Hello Folks

This is my penultimate edition of Focal Point, as the new editor will take over for the March Edition. I will finish with the February edition. I have enjoyed every minute of getting to know you all, by that I mean the different organisations that send in articles for the Focal Point. I hope that Annie would think that I have done you all proud.

Lizzie Wakefield will be your new Editor. She is a young lady of nearly fifteen years of age and very bright and passionate about doing Focal Point and I am sure she will be tremendously good at doing it. Her mother Diana will assist her with any aspect of it that she is not able to do but there wont be much as she is very capable. She does not live in Winthorpe but just on the other side of the A1 on Winthorpe estate and did actually attend Winthorpe School. She also volunteers at RSPB Langford Lowfields in her spare time.

There are also going to be some changes to the set up of Focal Point too. It has never had anyone other than the editor and the treasurer looking after it before but now will come under the auspices of the Parish Council (Hopefully) and sometime in the not too distant future a committee will be set up so that they can look at the prices of adverts and the costs involved and any other aspect that needs a judgement on. It will also give Lizzie a framework behind her to help out with any difficulties that she encounters and will be a back up for her too and anyone else in the future who is the editor

But apart from all that Christmas is almost here and festivities are about to start so I would like to wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I hope that you all have a wonderful time and that the weather doesn't put a damper on any of it. Take care.....Marcia

Winthorpe Primary School

140th Anniversary

Staff and pupils at Winthorpe Primary School have been celebrating the 140th Anniversary of the school opening in the village. The school held a birthday party to mark the occasion and also spent the day looking back at the history of the school. The pupils enjoyed looking back at all of the old photographs of the school with some dating back to over 100 years ago. The children also loved looking through the old Log Book, particularly the section from 1879 which documented the build of the original school building at a cost of £925! There was also a lot of interest in the old Punishment Books which documented any bad behaviour and the resulting punishments that were handed out. One of the children's parents, Verity McLuckie, baked a splendid birthday cake which everyone enjoyed immensely.

We are holding an open morning on Wednesday 27th November and would be delighted to welcome any villagers or prospective parents on a tour of the school. Please contact the Headteacher, Mr Rob Cook – head@winthorpe.notts.sch.uk , or see www.winthorpe.notts.sch.uk for more information.

News from Langford Lowfields

Important Information:

Floods and rising water levels on the reserve

This month has seen a considerable amount of rainfall and the impact of this is that whilst the river hasn't come over the flood bank yet, Slough Dyke (which follows the southern and western boundaries of the reserve) is backing up and cascading over into Phase 3. We still can't release water into the river (because it's so high) and so levels on site have now got to the point where not only the pond dipping platform and boardwalk are submerged, but all the low spots on the trail around Phase 1 are underwater and have been closed. This means that the only walk now available is from the Beach Hut to the 360 Viewing Platform (aka Corfe Castle) and back again. You can no longer do a loop around Phase 1. To get to Corfe Castle a diversion has been put in place from the Beach Hut to keep people away from the water. Slough Dyke has also flooded large sections of the perimeter that circle the site.

All the non-public areas are also flooded with the various parts of the reserve joining together to form one big body of water. The reed is still sticking out the water though, so keep an eye out for Barry the Bittern clinging valiantly to the top of the tallest reed stem!

If you are planning a visit, please check our Twitter or blog as it is possible that we will close all or large sections of the reserve if the water levels continue to rise (@rspblangford); our blog (www.rspb.org.uk/community/placestovisit/langfordlowfields/blog); or Facebook (<https://engb.facebook.com/RSPBNottinghamshireDerbyshire/>).

Sightings and volunteer work

Sightings since our last newsletter include: bearded tits, goldeneye, large starling murmuration, stonechat, bittern, pink footed geese, great white egret, green sandpiper, marsh harrier and snipe.

The volunteers have continued to do a lot of work creating ideal habitat for grasshopper warblers this month.

Join us for our next event at Langford

There are a few spaces left on our Winter Wonderland Guided Walk on Saturday 7 December 2019 1:00-3:00 pm at Langford. Joe Harris, Site Manager, will lead the walk around the reserve talking about the site and its work, and seeing nature along the way. Booking is essential on 01636 893611 or Langford.Beckingham@RSPB.org.uk. Meet at Cottage Lane Car Park. Payment to be made on the day as follows:

Christmas Puddings With 'Fun-raisin'

Hopefully that dreadful attempt at a pun drew your attention to our little venture to raise money for the Newark Foodbank, who are trying to put together a special Christmas Day hamper for those that are in need of support.

We have been making homemade Christmas puddings to give as gifts for many years and we thought this year it might be nice to use this tradition to help others. Last year we made 65 puddings, this year we are planning to make 100. We are asking for a donation of £10 for each pudding, all of which will be donated to Newark Foodbank.

Those that have had gifted puddings in the past will continue to receive them, hopefully each of you will donate. The additional 35 puddings are available on a first-come-first-served basis. They are very good! We have created a special email address (xmas.puddings@outlook.com), please just email us to let us know that you would like one, confirming your name and address. I will Deliveroo!

I hope that you will support this little 'fun-raisin' venture. It will make a difference to many families in Newark on Christmas Day. What a lovely Christmas thought.

WINTHORPE WITH LANGFORD PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council held its monthly Council meeting in the village hall on Thursday 21st November 2019.

The village bonfire took place on Saturday 2nd November without incident. For the second year running, there were less people in attendance than in previous years so our contributions to organisations that support the event will be reduced. Details of the bonfire accounts will appear in next month edition of Focal Point. The Council would like to thank the Lord Nelson who provided excellent food and refreshments and all the other organisations who supported the event and made it an enjoyable evening.

The Council would like to point out that only continued support for all events in the village, either at the Community Centre, or events such as the Summer Festival or Bonfire will ensure their continuation into the future. Once they stop, it will be very difficult to resurrect them.

On a brighter note, I am delighted to say that the future of Focal Point looks to have been resolved. The Parish Council have agreed to take Focal Point under its wing with regards to its financial position but leave it to be run by its new editor Lizzie Wakefield.

The Council would like to thank Duncan Richardson for his continued support and efforts in sorting its future and Marcia Parkin for taking on the role of editor when Annie Purday left the village.

The Parish Council has been informed by Newark and Sherwood District Council that the travellers (located adjacent to the A1) have appealed to the High Court against the Enforcement Notice issued by N.S.D.C. No further action will be taken by N.S.D.C. until High Court proceedings have been completed.

As always, please contact me if you need to raise any issues at parishclerkatwinthorpe@outlook.com.

Winthorpe Garden Club

This month the Winthorpe Garden Club was treated to an autumn/winter wreath-making session, courtesy of Jan Thompson and Susie Connings. Jan and Susie live in Winthorpe and are neighbours; both share a love of flower arranging, and Susie especially has much experience in making Christmas wreaths which can last as long as Valentine's Day!

Jan told us about how she was inspired to develop a cutting garden within an area of her mature garden, to enable her passion for flower arranging. She told us about the successes as well as the odd disaster. She is attempting to develop a continuous flowering display so that she can replenish her stocks, therefore enabling her to have an indoor flower arrangement all the way through to November. She emphasised dahlias, zinnias, white cosmos, scabia and euphorbia as being garden successes.

Jan explained that floristry is increasingly becoming more environmentally friendly. For example, an emphasis on seasonal flowers and using sustainable materials which can be recycled and avoiding materials such as cellophane and oasis. She emphasised how doing a jam jar posy was an incredibly sustainable way of engaging with flower arranging. She also recommended using herbs like rosemary and mint in arrangements.

The Garden Club had great fun constructing their wreaths, building them up from foliage foraged from Jan's garden, and then finishing them off with 'treat' items such as cinnamon sticks and pine cones. This was accompanied by mince pies and mulled wine to get us into the festive mood. Jan and Susie did a super job at helping us along the way, and we are very grateful for the efforts they put into making this such an enjoyable experience. I am sure that the village will be suitably decorated with wreaths for the coming season!

NOVEMBER 2019 REFLECTIONS

Dear friends,

Can you believe it? That faraway, impossible date of 2020 is a reality that we're living in.

Can you believe it? A general election has been called for December 12th. Shock, horror, our busy pre Christmas timetable might be disrupted, we might have more than Christmas cards dropping through the letterbox and we might even have strangers knocking on the door asking for our votes.

Maybe we feel worn down and tired by this election at the end of a politically fraught year and think that it just doesn't fit. Add to that the anniversaries of tragic deaths and perhaps we fear that a merry Christmas is out of sight. But let's think beyond the tinsel, lights and gift wrapping and remember the first Christmas.

The lives of Mary and Joseph were disrupted by a political decision to make everyone travel to their home town to be registered in a census. This was a controlling and oppressive practice; it meant a dangerous journey, expense and loss of earnings. Mary was pregnant when she made this hazardous journey and Jesus was born in a stable.

Can you believe it? This is how God came into the world. If our careful plans are disrupted this year, nothing can change that: God came into the world; this is a cause for great celebration, so let's celebrate.

In church, we'll be telling, singing and celebrating the story of Christmas throughout December and January in different ways. We have a children's Christingle service, mid December carol services and Holy Communion services on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, so there's something for everyone. Please check the list of events and services and join in.

In this chilly season, Winthorpe church services are moving back into the warm and cosy village hall, apart from Christmas Eve, when we'll be back in church, so wrap up well for that. Thanks to good neighbours, Holme church is normally open during daylight hours, so if you fancy some peace and quiet, please pop in.

So, as we end one decade and begin another, don't forget to celebrate the birth of Jesus, remember what happened that first Christmas, pray, sing and call into church. And this December, don't forget to vote!

Have a joyful Christmas and a happy new year.

God bless you all

Revd Mandy.

CHURCH NOTICES

We thoroughly enjoyed our 'Special' November services with our Patronal Songs of Praise led by Mandy and our Remembrance Service led by David. Both were well attended and hymns sung with much gusto by everyone to try to keep warm!

This month we look forward with much enthusiasm to many more special services. On Sunday December 8th at 3p.m. in the Community Centre we are holding our Carol Service – this is a week earlier than last year as we could not book the Community Centre for then. We look forward to seeing many villagers there with the enticement of refreshments afterwards!! On Sunday December 15th at 3p.m we will be holding our Christingle Service in the Village Hall. Hopefully, families have received their invitations by the time they read this. Our final service of the year, the Christmas Eve Holy Communion at 7p.m. will be held in church (please wrap up warm!)

The Boiler Fund is mounting up fantastically well but we still have £12,000 to find. We have applied for grants which take time to process as Trusts only meet every few months. With this in mind I have started a Just Giving page:

https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/winthorpeallsaints?utm_term=ZmpXnp3Bp

It would be wonderful if anyone in the village could find their way to parting with a little bit of their hard earned money to help us get over the line.

It just leaves me, on behalf of the PCC, to wish everyone a very merry Christmas and a healthy and happy New Year with our prayers remembering everyone who is ill or hospitalised at Christmastime.
